LOCAL MATTERS.

REMEMBER the College Concert at the Chapel to-night. It promises a most pleasing entertainment.
COAL.—For the best Pine Hill and Livingston coal, call on Thomas D. Newland, Yard on Depot street.
NEW MEAT SHOP.—Having rented the meat shop of W. F. Ramsey, on Depot st., we will keep on hand fresh meats of the best quality. Give us a call. Merier & Houser.
DELAY.—The engine attached to the passenger train broke some portion of her machinery between Shelby City and here last evening, consequently it was an hour and a quarter late when it arrived.
TO TEXAS VIA C. S. R. R.—The Cincinnati Southern Railroad is now selling tickets to Texas, and we learn that those who have tried the route are delighted with it. See particulars in card of road published elsewhere.
GIVE YOUR NAME.—A letter signed "Occasional" from McKinney, would have been published had the writer sent his name. He didn't, however, so it went to the waste basket to rest with all communications of that kind.
THAT FENCE.—It is a false piece of economy to enclose so handsome a building as the new jail residence with such a fence as is being put up. Five dollars more would have given a neat enclosure, and such an one ought by all means to have been put there.
TWO TRAINS TO LOUISVILLE.—By reference to the time table of the L. & N. R. R. in another column, it will be seen that there are now two daily trains from Danville Junction to Louisville. The second train is a mixed one, but passengers will find the accommodations good and comfortable.

ACQUITTED.—The examining court acquitted Thos. Robinson of the charge of maliciously wounding John Arnold.
WAGONS AND BUGGIES.—Three new two-horse wagons, fully warranted, and three nice buggies will be sold before the Court-house door next Monday to the highest bidder, on four months time, by Weber & Evans.
BUSINESS MATTERS.—Messrs. W. P. D. Courts & Son have removed their Saddlery store to Richmond. They are clever gentlemen, and we regret to give them up.
MR. ASHER OWLEY will open in a week or two, a Grocery and Provision Store in Chennault's old stand.
GAME LAW.—For the benefit of Dr. Bohon and others, we will state that on and after to-morrow (February 1) it will be unlawful to kill partridges, woodcock, pheasants, doves or rabbits. The fine for killing each is $3 and costs, and we hope the law will be strictly enforced.

No BODY READS ADVERTISEMENTS.—This is what the case filed, short sighted individual will tell you, but it is an 'ole' with an 'I' in the middle. Last week we put a couple of lines in the INTERIOR JOURNAL saying the cash would be paid for 5 barrels of corn, and by actual count, seventeen corn-sellers made application.

THE COMMON SCHOOL HOUSE.—On the 15th of February, a vote will be taken in this precinct to ascertain the will of the qualified white voters as to whether or not a tax of 25 cents on the $100 worth of property shall be made for the purpose of building a Common School House. The necessity of such a building is so obvious, that we are sure the tax will be voted by a large majority.

CHAIN GANG.—Jailer Newland is getting some good work out of the chain gang, which now numbers about a dozen. All the rubbish has been removed from the Court yard and now the gang is engaged in cleaning up the streets. The latter is pretty hard work, and when it becomes generally known that a sentence to hard labor means more than boarding in jail at the expense of the county, petty crimes will rapidly decrease.

GO THERE YOURSELF.—If any of our readers think that we have been making idle assertions as to the cheapness and excellence of the goods of all kinds in store and for sale by Hayden Bros., all they have to do is to call there and see for themselves. Not only can you get woolen and winter goods much cheaper than elsewhere, but you will find the quality of the goods to be of the best. In fact, their entire stock is marked down lower than ever.

THE WHIPPING POST.—Two little negro boys were arrested and taken before Esquire Carson and Putnam, this week, charged with stealing peacock skins from Mr. Barr, the fur man. Owing to their extreme youth, the Court agreed to dismiss the case, provided the mothers of the boys would give them a "dressing down." The mother's readily agreed to this, and the switches being procured, they went to work and literally tore the boys to pieces. It was the most sensible punishment we had seen since the good old days of the whipping post, and it is safe to say those boys are effectually cured of stealing.

PROF. JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the claims of this distinguished aspirant for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, whose candidacy is announced in our issue of to-day. Descended from a long line of honorable Virginia ancestry, Prof. Pickett was born in Mason county, this State, and in regard to his educational advantages, which were of the best, the Mayville Eagle says: "After a thorough preparatory course in the schools of Washington City, he entered Princeton College, and having graduated, went to Europe and completed his education under the most eminent teachers of Germany and France, among others, under the celebrated Ollendorff, whose methods of linguistic instruction are familiar wherever the modern languages are successfully taught. Returning to this country, Mr. Pickett accepted a professorship in a noted school then presided over by the famous scholar and theologian, Alexander Campbell." Believing in the justice of his cause, Prof. Pickett, at the beginning of the war entered the military service of the Confederate army in the capacity of Chaplain, and served during its continuance, rendering great assistance on the field as well as in the hospital. He was born and raised a Democrat, is one of the most ardent supporters of the principles it teaches, and is a true gentleman in every sense of the word. Eminent-ly qualified for the position in every respect, we hope our people will consider his claims and take what action they think just and right in the premises.

QUARTERLY COURT.—A called term of the Quarterly Court convened on Monday, Judge E. W. Brown presiding, and quite a number of cases have been disposed of. The law allowing a certain class of evil-doers to be tried before this court is a good one and will save many dollars annually to the county. Another happy feature in the matter, too, is the new law which provides that unless a fine is promptly paid or repaid, the jury can say in their verdict that it shall be paid by hard labor, under the Jailer, at one dollar a day. The first case was against Thos. Robinson, white, for carrying concealed weapons. A fine of $75 and costs and ten days' imprisonment was entered against him, which is equal to 30 days in jail, as he can neither pay nor repaid. On a charge of fornication with one Martha Jane Miller, he was acquitted, and the case dismissed as was Miss Martha Jane. Richard Robinson, white, for fornication was fined $40 and costs. He couldn't pay, and was given to the custody of the Jailer. The woman in this case, Sallie Ann Miller, was discharged on the motion of the County Attorney, W. H. Miller, it appearing that she has been married. Merrill Blakely and Joe Baughman, for trespass, were fined $25 each, and the Jailer took them in charge. It will be remembered that they took horses and vehicles from the stable of the St. Asaph and drove to Lancaster, without the consent of the owners. Chas. Stigall and Wm. Baughman, for stealing coal from the R. R., got the former three months, and the latter one month at hard labor. Bill Blakely, for trespass, and Alex Martin, for gaming, were acquitted. The Court adjourned Wednesday to convene again Saturday for the trial of John T. Allen Sr., for keeping a tipping house; John Clark, for shooting at the passenger train; and Mack Lee, for stealing. County Attorney Miller is doing good service, and rarely fails to convict, if there is any show whatever.

THAT HAWK KILLED.—Shelby Tevis, who is an expert with a rifle, killed the white hawk, that, for many years has preyed on the poultry of the Shelby farm. Mr. Tevis took lessons in shooting from Emmett Logan, of the Courier-Journal last Summer, their targets being the innocent and long suffering blue-birds.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—The Crisis, one of them confined on a charge of murder, and the other awaiting the action of the Court of Appeals, on his sentence to Penitentiary for ten years for arson, and Thomas Robinson, serving out a sentence for carrying concealed weapons, made an attempt to free themselves this week, by sawing out the bars. Mr. Newland fortunately discovered the plan, and by threats of punishment compelled them to give up their saw, which was found to be the blade of a knife, filed down for the purpose.

SEASONABLE WORK.—We have a few words of advice for our readers and the public generally, who live in this part of the country. We know you cannot get along without money or food, and as all of us should practice economy, if we would succeed in life, it behooves us to buy our goods where we can get the best for the least money. From what we see and hear almost every day, we are satisfied that Hayden Bros. offer the public every inducement to buy of them, and their well-known integrity is a warranty that they will do you right.

ELECTION ROW.—A row occurred at Shelby City last Saturday, during the holding of the Primary Election, that came near being quite serious in its results. Geo. Phillips, a drunken white man, with but slight profanity, shot and wounded in the groin, a negro named John Givens. This drew the hearts of his colored brethren, and they sought to wreak vengeance on Phillips and his friends, who took refuge in the Dodd's House. Later Phillips was put on the Danville stage, and the negroes becoming apprised of this, formed into a mob and set chase for the vehicle. The driver, however, put the lash to his horses and succeeded in winning the race, the negroes giving it up at the end of half a mile. Phillips, who was under charge of an officer at the time the attempt was made to mob him, was taken to jail at Danville. We earnestly hope that stringent measures will be taken to bring to the severest punishment every man engaged in the riot.

VALLEY LODGE I. O. G. T.—We are glad to learn that the meetings of this excellent organization are well attended and growing in interest. It always speaks well for the morals of a community to have in its midst a thriving Lodge of Good Templars. It shows a desire on the part of a portion of the community, at least, to endeavor a spirit of reform and eradicate the manifold vices which are the inevitable result of an intemperate life. In addition to the regular business of the Lodge, a system of literary exercises has been inaugurated which adds very materially to the interest of the meetings. These consist of lectures, essays, recitations, original and selected, debates, dialogues, &c., and are not only interesting, but instructive, especially to the younger members of the Lodge. The following were the officers elected at the last meeting: J. B. Dennis, W. C. T. Miss Anna Roberts, W. V. T. Dr. S. P. Craig, W. S. J. C. Sautter, W. T. Dr. L. F. Miss Mary Myers, W. T. Dr. L. F. Hoffman, W. M. Miss Jennie Richards, W. I. G. G. A. C. Rochester, W. O. G. Rev. John M. Bruce, W. Chaplain; Dr. G. W. Bronaugh, P. W. C. T. The assistants have not been selected. The Masonic Hall has been secured for the following year. Meetings every Friday night.

MARRIAGES.—EARLE-COLSON.—On the 30th, at Preachersville, Mr. Samuel G. Earle to Miss Mary Ella Colson. The bride is barely 15.

SINGLETON-REYNOLDS.—On the 28th, at the residence of N. S. Reynolds, the bride's father, Hunley Singleton and Miss Susan F. Reynolds.

WILL HAVE TO WAIT.—Wm. Collins applied for license to wed to marry Miss Urie Oaks, and was asked the usual questions by Mr. Blain. It turned out in the examination that Miss Urie had been married before, and that the ceremony was performed in Elizabethtown, one Powers promising to love and protect her through life. He, however, wearied of his choice, and it is alleged, left her and married again. Going from bed to worse, he was finally arrested for stealing and sent to the Penitentiary. Believing that this gave her a divorce without further proceedings, Mrs. Powers applied for an approval at the loving advances of Mr. Collins, and after the usual billing and cooing, promised to enter the married state for the second time. The license was refused, but as proceedings for divorce will be brought before the Circuit Court in April, the loving pair will have but a short time to wait, for the divorce will be easily obtained.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—Occurred at Florence Yowell's last week. A little daughter was chewing clover, one of which found its way into the larynx, and after producing a good deal of annoyance, passed down to the lungs. The little girl is suffering greatly, and her condition is one of danger.

HAIL, GENTLE SPRING!—We have had Spring weather for several days. It seems to be more popular than the newly-invented polar wave. Flows are being gathered out of the fence corners, chains collected from the horns of rogish cattle, and other energetic preparations being made for active farming.

CRAB ORCHARD.—DANCE.—The "light fantastic" will be tripped at the Kennedy House next Friday night.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. J. Henry Fish, grocer, sold out a few days ago, his stock of groceries to Mr. Frances Edmiston.

BUGGY SMASHED.—Mr. Henry Green, a dashing young gent from the country, had his buggy badly demolished on Sunday last, by a vicious horse.

SCARED.—Col. Heathrington, U. S. officer, was in town last week. His appearance caused quite a number to look "round eyed" and to whisper, "what does he want?" However, he was on his way to Preachersville to take depositions in the Ball case.

MUSIC.—The Crab Orchard Minstrels discoursed sweet music under the windows of a few of the fair sex on last Thursday night. The juvenile band also, was out serenading, and with Stewart Myers' son, Willie, as leader, they make music worth listening to.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Horse and Jack Bills printed at greatly reduced prices at this office.
At Lancaster Court G. W. Alford bought 6 horse mules, 3 and 5 years old, at $60 to $80.
John W. Pennington bought of G. C. Givens, 127 acres on the Hanging Fork, at $40 per acre.
Wallace E. Varnon sold to Jos. Ballou, 46½ acres of land near the Danville Pike, at $40 per acre.
H. S. Halley, of Scott, bought of W. A. Older, of Harrison county, 20 head of broke mules at $74 per head.
Stephen E. Owsley returned from Georgia, last week, having disposed of his mules at $30 to $30 per head.

G. W. Alford shipped this week to his partner, J. D. Swape, at Talladega, Ala., 21 mules for which he paid an average of $70.
J. W. Liver received 35 cattle, bought for him in Lincoln county, for which he paid $4 per hundred.—[Paris True Kentuckian].

Thos. Luttrell, of Fleming county, sold a very fine lot of 30 head of 2-year-old mules at $80 per head. They are destined for the Southern market.
The wheat crop promises finely. Protected for more than a month by a heavy snow, but little has been killed by the cold so far, and the stand is better than for years.

CYNTHIANA.—A large crowd, but not much stock offering. From 50 to 100 cattle, at from $3 to $3.75. A few mules at $35 to $120. A great many horses on the market, and sold at $10 to $100.
Mr. Eb. Magoffin sold to Mr. J. T. Curry last week 42 yearling cattle at $25 per head, and took in exchange 200 bred ewes, the pick from a flock of 450, at $3 per head.—[Harrodsburg Observer].

James Hewitt, of Montgomery county, has lost out of a lot of feeding cattle 20 head since January 1st. The cattle commenced rubbing their heads incessantly against trees, &c., and soon lie down and die.
Mr. L. Hudson sold to Eastman & Co., of New York, 48 head of fat cattle at $4.65 per hundred. They are intended for the foreign market. They were of the very best grade and well fattened, averaging 1,000.—[Lancaster Visitor].

WINCHESTER.—About 800 cattle offered and trade much improved. The few good feeders in demand at 4c and over medium, 3c to 3½c inferior, 2½c to 3c. Farris & Wood, of Boyle, sold a lot of cattle, averaging 1,075, at $4.50 per head.
A peculiar disease has broken out among the sheep flocks in the Blue Grass region. It shows a desire on the part of a portion of the community, at least, to endeavor a spirit of reform and eradicate the manifold vices which are the inevitable result of an intemperate life. In addition to the regular business of the Lodge, a system of literary exercises has been inaugurated which adds very materially to the interest of the meetings. These consist of lectures, essays, recitations, original and selected, debates, dialogues, &c., and are not only interesting, but instructive, especially to the younger members of the Lodge. The following were the officers elected at the last meeting: J. B. Dennis, W. C. T. Miss Anna Roberts, W. V. T. Dr. S. P. Craig, W. S. J. C. Sautter, W. T. Dr. L. F. Miss Mary Myers, W. T. Dr. L. F. Hoffman, W. M. Miss Jennie Richards, W. I. G. G. A. C. Rochester, W. O. G. Rev. John M. Bruce, W. Chaplain; Dr. G. W. Bronaugh, P. W. C. T. The assistants have not been selected. The Masonic Hall has been secured for the following year. Meetings every Friday night.

MR. J. D. BASTIN says the following trade actually took place in the Hall's Gap neighborhood this week: Mr. Daily sold to Geo. Trumbull, a ten-year-old mule, 11 hands high, 3½c, 1 rooster, 4 ducks, 1 old cross cut saw, 1 set old breaching, and 1 old cast kettle. A circulating medium in that locality it seems, is almost unknown.

LOUISVILLE.—The prices for cattle are firm at the following quotations: Good to extra shippers, 3½ to 4½; butchers 3½ to 3½; to medium, 1½ to 3½. Hogs continue to rise, choice to butchers now bringing $3.65 to $3.75; fair to good, $3.40 to $3.50; good light, $2.75 to $3.25. Fair demand for best qualities of Sheep at $4 to $4.50; common dull at 2 to 3 cents.

During the year 1877, there were 17,000 horses sold in Cincinnati, at an average price per head of $75, and about 5,000 mules, at an average price per head of $85. In 1878, there were 21,000 horses sold at an average of $73, and 9,000 mules at about the same price per head as in the year previous. Cincinnati is now the best horse market of the country.—[Commercial].

A steer belonging to John H. Miller, of this county, was recently taken sick, and not remedied producing any effect, and the animal becoming thinner and worse every day, he had it killed. In skinning it, a bruised place was discovered, and cutting through to find its extent, a nail was found sticking into the punch, nearly to its head. How it was first driven into the steer's hide is a mystery. Mr. Miller is unable to unravel it.

LINCOLN COUNTY.—Hustonville.
FALSE ALARM.—The alarm of "Fire" on Tuesday night was created by the cremation of a broom-field field near town.
DOGMATIC.—Jim Owens promising young pointer, "Syd," was ruthlessly murdered last Saturday. He played with a lamb, and tickled it to death.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—Occurred at Florence Yowell's last week. A little daughter was chewing clover, one of which found its way into the larynx, and after producing a good deal of annoyance, passed down to the lungs. The little girl is suffering greatly, and her condition is one of danger.
